

Health & Medical Disclosure Policy

Travel with Amira

The safety and wellbeing of our travelers are of utmost importance.

Participants are responsible for ensuring they are medically fit to travel and participate in the planned activities.

Disclosure Requirement

Travelers must disclose any condition that may affect their ability to travel safely, including but not limited to:

- Chronic medical conditions
- Mobility limitations
- Significant allergies
- Mental health conditions requiring support
- Recent surgeries or hospitalizations

Failure to disclose relevant medical information may result in removal from the trip if safety concerns arise.

Medications

Participants are responsible for carrying:

- Personal medications
- Medical devices
- Prescriptions
- Required medical documentation

Travel with Amira cannot guarantee availability of specific medications overseas.

Emergency Medical Care

In the event of illness or injury, Travel with Amira may assist in arranging medical care; however, all associated costs remain the sole responsibility of the traveler.

Travel insurance is strongly recommended for all participants.
