

Traveler Code of Conduct

Travel with Amira

Our journeys are designed to create meaningful experiences in a respectful, welcoming, and supportive environment.

Expectations

All participants are expected to:

- Treat fellow travelers with kindness and respect
- Respect local cultures, customs, and laws
- Follow instructions from trip leaders and local guides
- Act responsibly and safely throughout the journey

Unacceptable Conduct

The following may result in immediate removal from the trip without refund:

- Harassment or bullying
- Aggressive or disruptive behavior
- Illegal activities
- Conduct that jeopardizes the safety or comfort of others
- Excessive intoxication or inappropriate behavior

Travel with Amira reserves the right to determine whether conduct is inconsistent with the values and standards of the trip.

Any additional costs resulting from removal shall be borne by the traveler.
